

Georgina Scurfield

State Board Chairperson

Georgina is a social worker, currently working as Coordinator of the Sarpy County CASA program, a volunteer program providing advocacy for abused and neglected children through the Sarpy County Juvenile Court. She has a degree in Social Studies and Social Work from Hatfield, England, where she worked as a social worker in London and Hertfordshire for 12 years, before moving to the U.S. and completing her Masters in Social Work at the University of Nebraska-Omaha. Georgina has served as Chair of the Metropolitan Child Advocacy Coalition. Georgina is a LMHP and was formerly Director of Parents United, an Omaha based program serving families impacted by intra-familial sexual abuse. She lives in Papillion with her husband, Bob Tribolet.

